

2022 SESSIONS HOMELESSNESS 101

Addressing Homelessness in Pierce County

- Wondering how homelessness became a crisis and if "Shelter for All" is even possible?
- Looking for ways to engage your faith community or other group in the work of ending homelessness?
- Considering volunteering at a local shelter or homeless service agency?

We offer Homelessness 101 as a place to begin.

For more information about these or other volunteer training sessions, contact: Carolyn Read: readcarolyn@comcast.net or Theresa Power-Drutis: tpdrutis@nctacoma.org

2-part Sessions 6-8 Pm

Choose a date:

FEBRUARY 15

MARCH 15

APRIL 19

6-7PM

HOMELESSNESS 101

Orientation for persons interested in working with local shelters, safe lots, or other shelter options as staff or volunteers, and for community advocates.

7-8 PM

REFLECTION IN ACTION

Session participants & ongoing volunteers are invited to join us for guided reflection on the challenges & joys of this work.

SESSION PRESENTERS

Rosemary Powers
Theresa Power-Drutis
Joel Hellenkamp

A program of
PIERCE FAITH WORKS
A collective impact network

Register here:
www.associatedministries.org/events