- 00:27:46 - Kenneth King: - Is there more info on the Puyallup homeless coalition? Google results are all from 2012.

Hello Monique Brown!!

- 00:29:19 - Richard Dorsett: - I can't respond to shelter space. We connect as best we can. Lots of confusion during sweeps.
- 00:29:47 - Monique B / FOB Hope / She-Her: - Thank you, Richard.
- 00:30:13 - Theresa Power-Drutis: - If you want to offer advocacy postcards to unsheltered people for sweeps responses. Here is a template to be printed on cardstock
- 00:30:38 - Courtney Love LEC: - Reacted to "If you want to offer..." with ❤️
- 00:31:02 - Theresa Power-Drutis: - I have stamps if you drop postcards off with me. tpdrutis@nctacoma.org

- 00:31:48 - Courtney Love LEC: - Caleb, can we get a total on the money spent on rocks since the camping ban passed?
- 00:32:09 - Rob Huff (he/him) Housing Alliance: - CE = Coordinated Entry
- 00:32:14 - Christine Lindquist: - Mobile CE makes so much sense.
- 00:32:19 - Rob Huff (he/him) Housing Alliance: - It does!
- 00:32:30 - Kenneth King: - Just a reminder, My team can not respond unless theres a community referral. and we don't approach people where they sleep
- 00:32:35 - Rob Huff (he/him) Housing Alliance: - And it has been done at some sweep sites, leading up to sweeps
- 00:32:47 - Rosemary Powers: - birth-day by Lucille Clifton today we are possible.
the morning, green and laundry-sweet,
opens itself and we enter blind and mewling.
everything waits for us:

from The Collected Poems of Lucille Clifton: 1965-2010

00:32:51 - Sally Perkins: - it should not be hard to take a laptop or ipad out and do this, using a hot spot for wifi or other internet connection.

00:34:01 - Kenneth King: - Timothy LOL

00:34:18 - Kenneth King: - I mean... I'm not saying I'm not down

00:34:48 - Kenny Coble コーブル健: - Rosemary, thank you for starting the meeting with that poem. Lucille Clifton is one of my favorite poets of all time.

00:34:51 - Theresa Power-Drutis: - How about we focus on Coordinated Entry when people first put up a tent instead of when the sweeps are happening?

00:35:05 - Christine Lindquist: - Reacted to "How about we focus o..." with 👍

00:35:05 - Courtney Love LEC: - Reacted to "How about we focus o..." with ❤️

00:35:19 - Kerri Hill: - Reacted to "How about we focus o..." with 🙌

00:35:36 - Kenneth King: - Coordinated entry is supposed to be part of the 211 process, for interventive accessibility...

00:36:02 - Kerri Hill: - Reacted to "Coordinated entry is..." with 🙌

00:36:02 - Sally Perkins: - "supposed to be..." Yeah right.

00:36:10 - Kenneth King: - .... yeeeuup

00:36:21 - Richard Dorsett: - "Process" haha.

00:36:31 - Rob Huff (he/him) Housing Alliance: - You can join the inclement weather list here:

- 00:37:09 - Theresa Power-Drutis: - We need outreach at the start no matter what - better if it is funded and organized. Otherwise it is pretty random.
- 00:37:11 - Rob Huff (he/him) Housing Alliance: - Reacted to "Mr Seales would like..." with ❤️
- 00:37:20 - Jan Runbeck: - Needs = good street shoes. Nativity House, St Vincent DePaul, TRM all need shoes. Shoes have a hard life if the feet are always in them 24/7.
- 00:37:22 - Courtney Love LEC: - Reacted to "We need outreach at ..." with ❤️
- 00:37:23 - Courtney Love LEC: - Reacted to "Mr Seales would like..." with ❤️
- 00:37:33 - Monique B / FOB Hope / She-Her: - FOB Hope would like to thank those who came out to our fundraiser last Saturday. Also, thank you to those who could not attend, but donated anyhow! Our organization raised almost $5,000 towards much needed resources at the Village. AND, thank you to Tammy and her team for putting a successful event together!
- 00:37:35 - Theresa Power-Drutis: - Thank you Susan, Jan, and Sugar Ray!
- 00:37:39 - Kenneth King: - Please remind Mr. Seales, we've all come out of the last three years of zoom only meetings. We have all dealt with bad reception

- 00:37:53 - Jessica Hall: - I don't know who else is able to do CE out in the field, but our team is overwhelmed. Hopefully what Jay is talking about will happen.

- 00:38:12 - Rob Huff (he/him) Housing Alliance: - Love Food is Free and all of the garden boxes across town!
- 00:38:19 - Kenneth King: - CE is a losing attempt at gate keeping
- 00:38:31 - Jennifer Ammons: - Reacted to "Love Food is Free an..." with 👍
- 00:38:49 - Richard Dorsett: - Word around the campfire is that this is Holy Week and ends with Good Friday. And in our midst a version of evil perpetuates itself, now with the power of our city government chasing half a dozen people around hilltop because it still won't answer the question, "Where are we supposed to go." As the decision makers and elected officials at City Hall claim 100% voluntary compliance with their camping ban, like Pontius Pilate, many wash their hands of the problem—it's the City's problem, not theirs.
- 00:38:55 - Jennifer Ammons: - Reacted to "How about we focus o..." with 👍
- 00:38:59 - Jessica Hall: - We have a lot of success with CE. The problem is the case management. These people need someone to walk with them, and there are just not enough of us.
- 00:39:02 - Courtney Love LEC: - HUD recommends that CE only allow the list to grow as big as the local CoC can serve. Pierce doesn't do this. If we switch to this, we need to still document those who don't make the list.
- 00:39:13 - Rob Huff (he/him) Housing Alliance: - Reacted to "We have a lot of suc..." with ❤️

- 00:39:31 - Jessica Hall: - Reacted to "Jessica, fair" with 👍
- 00:39:50 - Valeri Almony: - There are multiple outreach teams that do CE in the field and meet people where they are out. There is success through GLMHC and TRM. They also come out to the KP.
- 00:39:52 - Jennifer Ammons: - Reacted to "Word around the camp..." with ❤️
- 00:39:57 - Jessica Hall: - Replying to "Jessica, fair" frustrating either way!!

00:40:05 - Valeri Almony: - 211 also does CE and folks can call in and have that done and update their applications (every 90 days still required)

00:40:08 - Kenneth King: - back in a bit

00:40:12 - Courtney Love LEC: - We need a huge peer navigator program and an ombuds office. Perfect for the Unified Regional Approach.

00:40:14 - Sally Perkins: - if we are going to sweep people, and "offer them shelter" as part of the sweep process, then don't they need to be in CE to get shelter?

00:40:21 - Christine Lindquist: - Replying to "CE is a losing attem..."

Sorry - might be a dumb question, but Is there another way to get on a list for housing?

00:40:27 - Anna Baker: - Also, when folks contact 2-1-1 and become involved in the Priority Pool, that is only good for 90 days. The initial intake is referred to as the Creative Conversation, and the individual has to have another conversation with CE before they expire at the 90 day mark....this is a status update referred to as an Interim Conversation, and they have to keep CE updated as to their contact information.

00:40:58 - David Thompson - Food is Free Tacoma: - Food is Free Tacoma www.foodisfreewashington.org hello@foodisfreewashington.org www.freshfoodconnect.org to donate homegrown produce. Food rescue every Tuesday 11am Hope Point church 6511 S Cst Tacoma 98408 Pet food once a month.

00:41:00 - Sally Perkins: - Anna, thank you, I can guarantee that unhoused people do not understand this.

00:41:02 - Courtney Love LEC: - Replying to "211 also does CE and..."

It takes too long (hours), therefore not great for those who are homeless.

00:41:19 - Theresa Power-Drutis: - Thank you Jessica and Kenneth (and others doing outreach) - you are doing a great (and nearly impossible) job. I just know there are too many people for you and the HEAL team and the current group of outreach people to reach and too few places to refer people to once you do connect with them. Each sweep brings this to the forefront

00:41:46 - Sally Perkins: - the "entry" system has so many barriers for unhoused people to enter that it's hard to see how it helps.

00:41:55 - Jessica Hall: - Reacted to "Thank you Jessica ..." with 👍

00:41:57 - Monique B / FOB Hope / She-Her: - Reacted to "We need a huge peer ..." with ❤️

00:42:33 - Theresa Power-Drutis: - Sally - too true

00:42:34 - Sally Perkins: - The mid-Hilltop people recognize that they are being "targeted" (their word) by the sweeps.

00:43:05 - Jessica Hall: - So, a lot of people can enter someone into HMIS, but not everyone can enter someone onto an actual list. This is a big place of confusion unfortunately.

00:43:08 - Jennifer Ammons: - I grow small quantities of fruits and vegetables and used to donate small containers of things to the tables nearest me.

00:43:44 - Sally Perkins: - Jessica, yes, HUGE confusion. And if we are doing this as neighbors, it's insanely confusing.

I'm saying we need to schedule this part of the discussion for another, more private space.

00:53:40 - Jay Worley: - if we don't share how we can, we can not be full effective

It costs about $168k to send a postcard to every residential address in Pierce County right now (we just did it last month) but you can target specific zip codes if needed

- 01:12:13 - Rosemary Powers: - Kerri....that idea of displaying pictures of devastation from sweeps could be expanded to include images of creative community building and positive interactions on the street. Too often devastation images are simply read as evidence of encampments as community blight that needs to be swept.

01:14:06 - Courtney Love LEC: - The City and County don't have a mechanism to evaluate the service providers - we need a client satisfaction questionnaire and a dashboard with the data and it should inform the ranking and rating of funding applications.

01:17:50 - Jan Runbeck: - HB 1754 defines Safe Parking that is defined as a parking lot owned by a faith based org. Not "shelter".

01:18:12 - Courtney Love LEC: - I hate the City more and more... Helping some people screws others

01:18:36 - Jennifer Ammons: - This seems like a small needle eye to thread, between providing a useful safe parking site and becoming classified as an "emergency shelter."

01:19:04 - Jessica Hall: - We have been asked recently to come help with case management for many other programs in the community including the LEC and mitigation site. There are simple steps that can help everyone like getting ID, social security cards etc.

There is no magic volunteer "solution" to the formal, system being underfunded and overworked. Underfunding is a policy choice by City and County leadership. Overwork is the result.

01:22:18 - Jennifer Ammons: - I'm a lawyer, and I can't understand what classifies a site as a "shelter."

Pit information needs to be provided with contextualization. Should be an unsheltered homeless count. Need to track housing supply and demand by income accessibility, ie, how much is affordable to people at 30% AMI and below vs 80% of AMI; How many houses vs how many homeless; How many are coping with severe mental illness?

There is a coordinated entry data problem.

Need to know how many in queue.

Need to know response time.

HMIS prevents sharing of data that will help people.

Have a data person come each week to explain and present analysis; so we don't have to guess meaning of data.

We need to know, with safeguards, the needs of homeless people (by name list).

We are not allowed to serve people; too many HMIS barriers.

UWT has a data sciences department; academic analytics would be a huge benefit.

01:57:03 - Richard Dorsett: - This is my message to mayor and library director. If you are in a book group, consider these titles.

I am very pleased to see the selections announced for 2023 Tacoma Reads. The written word and stories about lived experiences are powerful means to change how people think and talk about housing instability and homelessness. There are many reading groups in Tacoma, and between now and November I hope all of them can read one or all of the books you have selected. I have already begun encouraging people I know to read "A Place Called Home" (David Ambroz), "Genesis Begins Again" (Alicia D. Williams), and "Home" (Tonya Lippert) and to include them as selections for their own book groups. In the months between now and November, please let me know if I can be of service helping to get these books in the hands and before the eyes of as many Tacoma readers as possible. We can end homelessness in Tacoma. Books like these offer a path to clear-headed understanding and effective solutions.
