00:11:28 - Rob Huff (he/him): - COALITION MEETING NORMS

Zoom Norms

- Mute yourself when not talking.
- Use Zoom's raise hand feature if you have something to say.
- Limit distractions by turning off your camera if you need to take another call.

00:12:01 - Rob Huff (he/him): - Community Norms

- Lead with a racial equity lens.
- Be aware of power dynamics.
- Challenge concepts, not people.
- Listen to learn.
- One person speaks at a time.
- Speak from your own experience.
- Make space, take space.
- Assume best intentions and take responsibility for impact.
- Be aware of time and agenda.

00:24:32 - Richard Dorsett: - Over the weekend I am seeking books to gift to Portland's Street Books.
Seeking the following:

Street Books accepts paperbacks in the following genres:

Fiction - literary, westerns, science fiction, horror (think Stephen King or Dean Koontz) and thrillers (like James Patterson).

Work by underrepresented writers - books by BIPOC and LGBTQ writers are popular so they are harder to keep in stock.

Nonfiction like history, spirituality, self-help, wilderness survival, foraging, herbal guides, etc. Also needed are new puzzle books and adult coloring books.

Spanish language - fiction, poetry, nonfiction, children's books.

00:24:33 - Dwight Avery: - The young man I have been assisting is 27 and has been without a physical address since January.

00:24:57 - Kenneth King: - Dwight, what day?

00:25:19 - Kenneth King: - sorry, *what area*

01:33:03 - Courtney Love: - My friend would see people released from NWDC at the Tacoma Port with a slip of paper and nothing else - they'd show up at the food bank she worked at.

01:33:11 - Kenneth King: - Reacted to "My friend would see ..." with ❤️

01:33:43 - Kerri Hill: - We also need signage at points of entry people are congregating to such as bus, train, airport

01:33:52 - Jay Worley: - thank you for the clarification

01:33:56 - Kerri Hill: - Reacted to "My friend would see ..." with 😞

01:34:01 - Sally Perkins: - @Jason, thank you for the info and clarifications as to definitions and status.

01:35:17 - Kenneth King: - Is this something that emergency management can assist with?

01:35:41 - Jay Worley: - it sounds like we may be getting to taking to DEM

01:35:48 - Jay Worley: - talking

01:35:59 - Kerri Hill: - Can we request comfort ship? Field set up like what we had at beginning of COVID?

01:36:10 - Stephanie Schermerhorn: - I found some webinars on the Northwest Immigration Rights project, that at least if you have time can provide context and define/educate immigration /asylum... etc.

01:36:50 - Kenneth King: - if we are talking about 40 plus families of three to six, that sets in the hundreds, individuals, and should be enough to necessitate an emergency designated shelter. which we could then organize resources directly

01:36:52 - Rosemary Powers: - "I celebrate myself, and sing myself,
And what I assume you shall assume,
For every atom belonging to me as good belongs to you." . . .

"Long have you timidly waded

Holding a plank by the shore,

Now I will you to be a bold swimmer,

To jump off in the midst of the sea,

Rise again, nod to me, shout,

And laughingly dash with your hair."

- 01:40:23 - Sally Perkins: - A response will need to be to ADD capacity locally, not shift it away from what is already an inadequate supply of housing in our community.
- 01:40:24 - Jennie Schoeppe: - has anyone actually talked to the PNW Detention Center?
- 01:41:02 - Kerri Hill: - This is exactly what is happening with other cities, pitting asylum seekers against homeless to more overburden homelessness resources
