

Upward Bound Summer Program

Teachers apply now!

Classes begin June 24th

Learn more at mdc-hope.org/jobs

Metropolitan Development Council (MDC) is recruiting teachers who will plan, prepare, and deliver quality instruction to support the academic growth of students during the Upward Bound Summer Program. This opportunity will pay $40 an hour for teaching on Mondays through Thursdays, beginning on June 24 through August 2 on the UWT campus.

The Upward Bound Summer Program is for income eligible, first-generation students. Teachers will provide instruction, teaching and mentoring that helps them transform their academic careers. This role includes a 15-minute planning period for each class session taught.

For more information, visit www.mdc-hope.org/jobs. Apply by emailing HRDepartment@mdc-hope.org with your resume and cover letter. This position is open until filled, however, the next review period is May 31, 2019.